

Trusted Emergency
Anticholinergic Support

Aroine Injection

Atropine Sulphate (0.6mg/ml) Injection

- Used to treat symptomatic bradycardia (slow heart rate).
- Helps increase heart rate during emergency cardiac care.
- Reduces excessive salivation and respiratory secretions before surgery.
- Used as a pre-anesthetic medication during operative procedures.
- Acts as an antidote in organophosphate and insecticide poisoning.
- Helps manage cholinergic crisis caused by certain medications.

In.

Bradycardia

Pre-Anesthetic Medication

Organophosphate Poisoning

Cholinergic Crisis

