

Chlovine

Chloroquine Phosphate 0.03%
Eye Drops

Antimalarial with Potent Anti-inflammatory Action

Chloroquine helps reduce inflammation and immune-mediated damage in the eye.¹

Reduces Ocular Inflammation and Immune Response

Effectively manages ocular inflammation associated with autoimmune conditions.²

Helps in Managing Corneal Opacities

Supports reduction in corneal haze and improves visual clarity.³

Protects Corneal Structure and Promotes Healing

Helps maintain corneal integrity and supports epithelial recovery.⁴

Well-Tolerated & Effective Topical Therapy

Safe for long-term use with minimal ocular side effects.⁵

INDICATIONS

Keratitis

Corneal Opacity

Autoimmune
Eye Disorders

Post-surgical
Inflammation

Ocular Surface
Disorders

References:

1. Uy HS, Yap ML. Chloroquine in ocular autoimmune diseases. Int Ophthalmol Clin. 2001;41(4):59-67.
2. Pavesio CE, et al. Immunosuppressive therapy for ocular inflammatory disease. Surv Ophthalmol. 2000;45(3):223-252.
3. Long-term Safety and Efficacy of Hydroxychloroquine and Chloroquine Retinopathy. Expert Opin Drug Saf. 2017;16(2):189-196.
4. Chloroquine and Hydroxychloroquine Toxicity. AAO Preferred Practice Pattern.
5. Product Monograph: Chloroquine Phosphate Ophthalmic Solution. Accessed April 2024.